West Physics Consulting Makes the 2008 Inc. 5000 List

NEW YORK, September 3, 2008 – Inc. magazine has ranked West Physics Consulting, LLC No. 858 on its 27th annual Inc. 5000 list of the fastest-growing private companies in the U.S. West Physics was also ranked No. 36 on the list of the Top 100 Health Companies and No. 44 on the list of the Top 100 Companies in the Atlanta metropolitan area. West Physics Consulting posted three-year revenue growth of 417.7% to make the list.

West Physics Consulting, based in Atlanta, Georgia, provides quality assurance testing for advanced imaging equipment (MRI, CT, ultrasound, etc.), as well as other diagnostic imaging consulting services to hospitals and imaging centers nationwide. West Physics employs a highly experienced team of medical and nuclear physicists to assist its clients with a wide variety of challenges in their diagnostic imaging businesses, including independently testing highly complex imaging equipment to ensure patient safety and image quality, assisting facilities with achieving prestigious accreditation from the American College of Radiology, helping facilities design lead shielding for x-ray installations, and providing other forms of regulatory and technical consulting. “We are thrilled to have been ranked on the 2008 Inc. 5000 list and we believe that this validates our core values of strong customer service, superlative technical expertise, and innovative service offerings,” stated West Physics Consulting President Geoffrey West. “Our mission of helping medical facilities throughout the United States maintain flawless diagnostic image quality for their patients is immensely gratifying and we are honored that our customers continue to ‘spread the word’ about West Physics Consulting.” Additional information about West Physics Consulting and its services can be found at www.westphysics.com.

About the Inc. 5000 List

The list is the most comprehensive look at the most important segment of the economy – America’s independent-minded entrepreneurs. Companies such as Intuit, GoDaddy, Under Armour, American Apparel, Oracle and hundreds of other powerhouses gained early exposure as members of the Inc. 5000. “If you want to find out which companies are going to change the world, look at the Inc. 5000,” said Inc. Editor Jane Berentson. “These are the most innovative, dynamic, fast-growing companies in the nation – the ones coming up with solutions to some of our knottiest problems, creating systems that let us conduct business faster and easier, and manufacturing products we soon discover we can’t live without. The Inc. 5000 list is Inc. magazine’s tribute to American business ingenuity and ambition.”

To qualify, companies must be U.S.-based and privately held, independent – not subsidiaries or divisions of other companies – as of December 31, 2007, and have had at least $200,000 in revenue in 2004, and $2 million in 2007. The 5000 companies that made the list reported aggregate revenue of $185 billion and median three-year growth of 147 percent.
